Re: A-110005

Dear Ms. Tighe

On April 11, 1997, an Interim Electric Generation Supplier License was granted to Eastern Power Distribution, Inc. at A-110005. On May 26, 1998, the Eastern Group, Inc., parent corporation and sole shareholder of Eastern Power Distribution, Inc., changed its name from the Eastern Group, Inc. to Statoil Energy, Inc.

By Petition filed June 9, 1998, Statoil Energy Trading, Inc., the successor corporation to Eastern Power Distribution, Inc., requested permission to transfer the License at A-110005 to Statoil Energy Services, Inc.

Upon review of the Petition and supporting data provided, you are hereby advised that the request to transfer the Electric Generation Supplier License from Statoil Energy Trading, Inc. to Statoil Energy Services, Inc. is approved.

Sincerely,

James J. McNulty

RE. Statoil Energy Services, Inc.; Docket No. A-110005, CHANGE OF NAME ON COMMISSION WEBSITE

Dear Secretary McNulty:

By letter dated August 18, 1998, you advised Statoil Energy Services, Inc. that the electric generation supplier license granted originally to Statoil Energy Trading, Inc. has been transferred to Statoil Energy Services, Inc. Please consider this letter a request by Statoil to have the Commission change the name of Statoil Energy Trading, Inc., to that of Statoil Energy Services, Inc. on any and all Commission websites referring to electric generation suppliers.

Your assistance in this matter is greatly appreciated. Please direct any questions regarding this matter to me.
