Dear Sirs: "

I am writing to request a review of your determination on a number of applications for initiatives under FirstEnergy Pennsylvania Utilities' Act 129NSLB Programs. On the same day, I submitted Applications NSLB173038, NSLB173036, NSLB173035 and NSLB173040. All of those were denied even though others which were submitted the same day were accepted. I executed an assignment of the rebate rights on May 30, 2013. My understanding is that the program did not expire until May 31. I sent my initial application to FirstEnergy for each of these claims and was advised on June 20, 2013 that all final application documents had been received. I received an email on May 30 that the initial application had been received. I would appreciate receiving an explanation for how it is that some of the applications were received, processed and paid, and others were received, processed and denied.

Sincerely,

Ralph R. Riehl, III
